THE OFFICIAL ART BOOK OF

ZERO-SUM: OMEN

DRAFT LAYOUT · v0.1

FOREWORD

Every number in this world is spinning. This book is about the people who live under them.

The Tally began as a question: what would a world look like if luck were a currency everyone could see? Our answer was a city that counts and a ring of lands that remember older ways of counting: thread, karma, contracts and books of the dead.

We built every style from that history. The brass of the Basilica, the scrap of the Remainder Wards, the gaudy charms of the street, the gold leaf of the fortunate few, and the painted, breathing lands beyond the gate.

THE ZERO-SUM: OMEN TEAM

"A WORLD WITHOUT LUCK IS A WORLD WITHOUT LOSS."

Comptroller Lucan Thale

STYLES

THE FOUR ERAS OF LUCK

Meridian's styles come from its history: the binding of the ledgers, the Rounding, the Deficit. Every street mixes them; every outfit tells you which side of the Zero-Sum Law its owner lives on.

TR 702	TR 760→	TR 850→	TR 960→	TR 990→	TR 1002
Basilica completed	Ledgerism	Charmpunk	Remainder	Gilded Fortune	Today

CHARMPUNK

→ LUCK OVER SENSE ←

The street's lingua franca. Every culture's charms worn at once, hand-painted lucky numbers, plastic gold and neon. Charmpunk is loud because luck is a performance: if you can't raise your Omen, you can at least look like you're winning.

ART NEEDED · CHARMPUNK keyframe

- Line-up of 6 Bazaar locals in Charmpunk
- Keyframe: the Charm Bazaar at night, every stall a different culture
- Omen display: gaudy holo-halos, fake Omen projectors

REMAINDER

→ SURVIVAL OVER LUCK ←

The style of the Undercity, where Omens run low. Scrap brass from old Basilica parts, patched cloth, salvaged Nixie tubes and rope. Durable, ugly, honest. People hide their numbers here out of shame.

ART NEEDED · REMAINDER keyframe

- Line-up: Remainder Wards residents (mechanic, cook, debt-ridden mother, kids)
- Environment: Rain Alley 9 at dawn
- Omen display: a cracked tube on a cord

LEDGERISM

→ ORDER OVER CHANCE ←

The style of the Basilica and its servants. Brass, steel and white enamel; cathedral arches; clockwork; uniforms with stamped seals. Cold, formal and threatening, it says that chance has been abolished and you are being counted.

ART NEEDED · LEDGERISM keyframe

- Line-up: Collectors, Ledger-priests, Basilica clerks, Auditors
- Environment: the Basilica Ring checkpoint
- Omen display: steel numerals, never glowing

GILDED FORTUNE

→ FORTUNE AND ORDER ←

The style of the 99s: old money and Exchange magnates. Real gold leaf, jade, silk and living plants. In Meridian a garden is luck you can see; a bonsai on a balcony is a fortune worn in public.

ART NEEDED · GILDED FORTUNE keyframe

- Line-up: Exchange magnates, heirs, their guards
- Environment: the Exchange Terraces garden-villas
- Omen display: embroidered or gold-leaf numerals

FORTUNE AND ORDER

Same three slots per era (a person, a charm, an Omen display), drawn side by side so the eras read as one system. First Meridian concept task.

THE TALLY

A ring of lands around Meridian's plateau. The upper city is sealed, so to go up you must go around. Each land kept its own ledger of fate before the Basilica bound them all.

Red dotted line: the party's road. Each land holds one Seal Digit; the seventh is the player's lucky number.

MERIDIAN · REMAINDER WARDS

Stacked in the drains and cliffs beneath the plateau. The Wards began as workers' housing for the Basilica's builders and became the place where low Omens end up. Remainder scrap meets Charmpunk colour: every door wears a different culture's charm.

What happened here: the Rounding. Every fraction of luck dropped since TR 702 flowed downhill, and so did everyone who lost theirs.

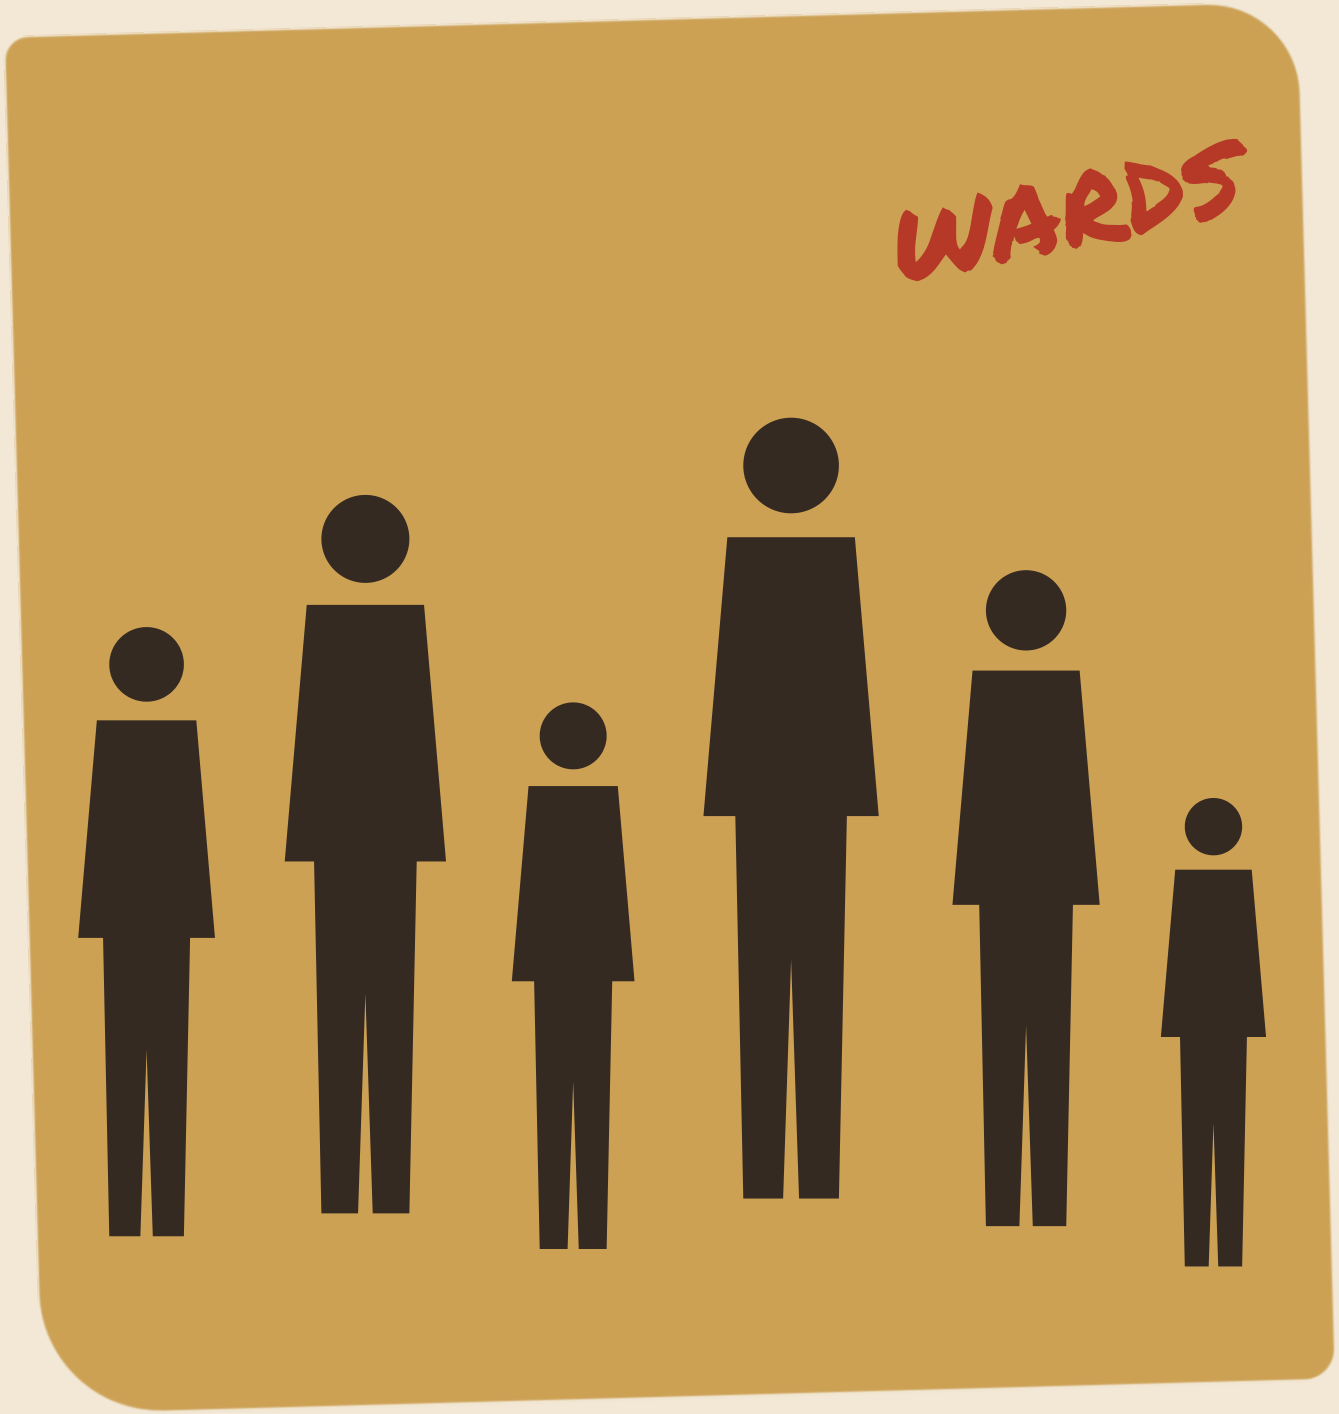

LINE-UP · REMAINDER WARDS

Six locals, shoulder to shoulder, slightly low camera, over the district painting. Ages, builds and origins vary; every outfit is evidence of the Wards' economy.

ART NEEDED · Remainder Wards line-up

- Brass-scrap mechanic (Remainder)
- Grandmother with jade and evil-eye charms (Charmpunk)
- Teen dice-gambler (Charmpunk)
- Collector in rust armour (Ledgerism)
- Noodle cook with a lemon-and-chilli charm
- Kid with a cracked Nixie-tube necklace (Remainder)

HYAKKI · MOON PIER

Volcanic islands where humans and yokai share festivals. The pier is where the party lands: lanterns, fireflies, and the Night Parade crossing the far ridge.

Meridian intrusion: a Ledgerist toll gate on the shrine road.
